Wheaton Announces Promotion of Pursell to Manager of Marketing Services

INDIANAPOLIS – Wheaton World Wide Moving, one of the premier providers of quality worldwide transportation services, recently promoted Shelley Pursell to Manager of Marketing Services.

Pursell joined Wheaton over two and a half years ago as a Marketing Representative when she graduated from Indiana University with a Bachelor's degree in marketing and international business. She has been involved in many of the new innovative changes to Wheaton's marketing initiative, including the flagship brochure and pictorial truck decals. In addition, Pursell is responsible for the coordination and oversight of Wheaton's Annual Partnership Conference and regional meetings across the country. She also serves as liaison with Wheaton's charities of choice, Give Kids The World and Indiana Children's Wish Fund.

"I am very excited about this new opportunity," Pursell replied. "We have recently completed numerous marketing projects and I look forward to leading the way on others. Wheaton is a great place to work and I have a great team to work with."

Dave Witzerman, Wheaton's Vice President of Market Development, commented, "Shelley has done a great for us over the last few years. We are confident that in her new role as manager of our marketing services department, she will continue to help improve Wheaton's brand image in the marketplace."

Founded in 1945, Wheaton World Wide Moving is one of the world's most highly regarded providers of transportation services. Wheaton offers not only domestic and international household goods relocation services, but special commodities and logistic services as well. Headquartered in Indianapolis, Ind., Wheaton is partner to approximately 300 agents nationwide.
