Wheaton World Wide Moving Announces Organizational Changes

INDIANAPOLIS – Wheaton World Wide Moving, one of the premier providers of quality worldwide transportation services, has named David Witzerman to Executive Vice President and Mark Kirschner to Chief Operating Officer. Wheaton's Chairman, Stephen F. Burns, announced Witzerman and Kirschner's new roles to the company on January 18, 2007. Burns stated that both gentlemen serve on Wheaton's Board of Directors and acknowledged they both have played an important role in Wheaton's recent growth and success.

Burns looks forward to the additional opportunities this organizational change will provide. "In order to keep up with the growth Wheaton has enjoyed over the last few years and to enhance our foundation for future expansion and opportunities, we placed Dave and Mark in roles to lead the strategic direction of the company," Burns said.

These appointments will allow Burns to focus on big-picture items such as acquisitions, special partnerships, solidifying key relationships, as well as diversification and industry matters.

A 23-year industry veteran, Witzerman has been with Wheaton the last 14 years. During his tenure, Witzerman's roles have encompassed everything from agency relations to overseeing marketing efforts. Kirschner joined Wheaton in 1982 and has played an integral role in many of the technology advancements and streamlined financial processes.

"Wheaton continues to outperform the industry's top and bottom line numbers. We are proud of this unprecedented growth in our company's history and look forward to more effectively serving our customers, drivers and agents," Witzerman said.

Founded in 1945, Wheaton World Wide Moving is one of the world's most highly regarded providers of transportation services. Wheaton offers not only domestic and international household goods relocation services, but special commodities and logistics services as well. Headquartered in Indianapolis, Ind., Wheaton is partner to approximately 250 agents nationwide.
