Wheaton Names Ayyagari Director of Information Technology

INDIANAPOLIS – Wheaton World Wide Moving, one of the premier providers of quality worldwide transportation services, recently promoted Raghava Ayyagari to Director of Information Technology. His list of achievements has many highlights including Wheaton's coveted Exceptional Employee Award, which he received for the Third Quarter of 2004.

Ayyagari has been with Wheaton for over four years and has been involved in the design, development and implementation of some of the Wheaton flagship information technology product lines that are aimed at providing information to the carrier's customers, agents and employees. Prior to working at Wheaton, Ayyagari was an IT consultant involved in the design and development of business applications for customers such as Eli Lilly, Citicorp, Chase, Ernst & Young, Compass Group NA and Sonata Software.

Wheaton Vice President of Finance and Information Technology Mark Kirschner is confident that Raghava Ayyagari is the perfect person for the position. "Raghava is one of those rare individuals that can identify business opportunities, possess the necessary technical knowledge and provides the leadership to implement value added solutions. We are very fortunate to have such an individual on our team."

"Personally, I look forward with great enthusiasm to work with this highly talented team to further Wheaton's vision in the selection, incubation and implementation of technology that will provide only the best services and substantial benefits to our customers and business partners alike," Ayyagari remarked.

Ayyagari earned his Bachelor's degree in Electronics and Communication Technology from Nagarjuna University, India. He resides in Carmel, Ind., with his wife Vijaya and their two children, Pranav (8 years old) and Saurav (3 years old).

Founded in 1945, Wheaton World Wide Moving is one of the world's most highly regarded providers of transportation services. Wheaton offers not only domestic and international household goods relocation services, but special commodities and logistic services as well. Headquartered in Indianapolis, Ind., Wheaton is partner to approximately 300 agents nationwide.
