Wheaton World Wide Moving Announces Drivers of the Month

INDIANAPOLIS – Wheaton World Wide Moving, one of the premier providers of quality worldwide transportation services, recently honored six individuals for their selection as Drivers of the Month for January and February 2007.

The carrier honored direct lease driver Donald Lindley, Avelia, Pa., with the award in January. A first-time Driver of the Month, Lindley has safely completed more than 46,500 miles since he qualified with Wheaton in December of 2005. January's honoree in the permanent fleet was Andrew Gardinsky, Summit Moving & Storage, Akron, Ohio. Gardinsky joined Wheaton in 1996 and has now logged more than 1,177,600 safe miles for the company. This is his second Driver of the Month award. Derek Isham, Bell Moving & Storage, Cincinnati, Ohio, was January's intermittent fleet award recipient. Isham has logged more than 472,000 safe miles since he joined Wheaton in 1997. This is his third Driver of the Month award.

February's direct lease honoree was Ken Ivey of Smithfield, N.C. He has been with the carrier since 1983 and logged more than 1,529,000 miles under the safe mileage program. This is Ivey's sixteenth Driver of the Month award. The February Driver of the Month award from the permanent fleet went to Rick Senones, All Brunswick Van Lines, Inc., Dayton, N.J. A three-time winner, Senones has more than 606,000 safe miles since joining the fleet in 1993. Delfino Arellano, La Habra Relocations, Inc., Brea, Calif., received the February intermittent fleet recognition. Arellano, who joined the fleet in 2001 and has accumulated nearly 99,640 safe miles, is a first-time winner of the award.

For their efforts these drivers each received a cash award and a plaque, along with Driver of the Month uniform patches and equipment decals.
