Wheaton World Wide Moving Names Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

INDIANAPOLIS – Wheaton World Wide Moving, one of the premier providers of quality worldwide transportation services, has named David Witzerman to Executive Vice President and Mark Kirschner to Chief Operating Officer.

A 23-year industry veteran, Witzerman has been with Wheaton the last 14 years. In his tenure at Wheaton he has held the positions of Director of Agency Administration, Vice President of Agency Administration, Vice President of Market Development and President of Crown Moving & Storage. "This change to Wheaton's organizational structure is proof positive of our growth over the last few years," Witzerman stated. "I am excited about the opportunity to better align our staff, service and sales functions to improve service to customers and agents."

Kirschner, formerly the Chief Financial Officer, has been with Wheaton for 24 years. During that time he has been the Controller, Assistant Vice President, and Vice President of Finance and Information Technology. "During my time with Wheaton, I have seen and experienced many changes," Kirschner said. "This restructuring opens the doors for growth and advancement in the coming years."

Wheaton Chairman Stephen F. Burns acknowledged that both gentlemen serve on Wheaton's Board of Directors and have played an important role in Wheaton's recent growth and success. Burns looks forward to the additional opportunities this organizational change will provide. "In order to keep up with the growth Wheaton has enjoyed over the last few years and to enhance our foundation for future expansion and opportunities, we placed Dave and Mark in roles to lead the strategic direction of the company," said Burns.

Witzerman earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Management from Indiana University and received his MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University. He lives in Indianapolis, Ind. with his wife Terry and their three children, Danny 18, Eric 18 and Matthew 8.

Kirschner holds a Bachelor's degree in Business from Indiana University and became a Certified Public Accountant in 1988. Born and raised in Indianapolis, he has one daughter, Sophia 3.

Founded in 1945, Wheaton World Wide Moving is one of the world's most highly regarded providers of transportation services. Wheaton offers not only domestic and international household goods relocation services, but special commodities and logistics services as well. Headquartered in Indianapolis, Ind., Wheaton is partner to approximately 250 agents nationwide.
